Ash Wednesday - February 18, 2015

Worship at Noon and 7:00p.m.

Lent begins with a solemn call to fasting and repentance as we begin our journey to the baptismal waters of Easter. As we hear in our reading for the Ash Wednesday Service, "Now is the acceptable time to return to the Lord." During Lent we, the people, of God, will reflect on the meaning of our baptism into Christ's death and resurrection.

The sign of ashes, which we receive on this day, suggests our mortality and frailty. What seems like an ending is really an invitation to make each day a new beginning, in which we are washed in God's mercy and forgiveness. With the sign of the cross on our brow, we long for the spiritual renewal that flows from the springtime Easter feast to come.

Come for Supper & a Classic Movie!

Soup, bread, dessert, and "Mr Blandings Builds His Dream House"! Come to the Fellowship Hall on Thursday, February 19, at 5:45 p.m. and enjoy them all!

Atonement is helping to sponsor this fundraiser for Samaritan House Homeless Family Shelter, along with assistance from Thrivent and Samaritan House Board members. Talented chefs Jean Amundson and Lola Jones (Executive Director at Samaritan House) will cook up some delicious soups for supper, and then you can sit back and enjoy this classic film.

We at Atonement Lutheran Church reach out with the good news of God's love through Jesus Christ.

As Christ's ministry includes everyone, we, too, welcome persons of any ethnicity, gender identity, race, sexual orientation, marital status, age, economic situation, and physical or mental ability.

We celebrate the gifts each one brings to the life and ministry of this community of faith.

Prayer Beneath the Cross

We invite you to join us each Wednesday evening during Lent (Feb. 25, March 4, 11, 18 and 25) for a contemplative service of prayer, readings, silence, and song. We will use a service first used at Holden Village called Prayer Beneath the Cross.

*We gather beneath the Tree of Life, the cross of Christ.
The sign of God's unfailing love for us and the whole creation.
We come to hear God's promise to pardon, strengthen, and heal us.
We come to pray for the healing of the nations and for the healing of our own lives and communities. We come at Christ's invitation.*

Each Wednesday we will gather in the Fellowship Hall at 6:00p.m. for a soup/bread supper and fellowship. The prayer service will follow at 7:00p.m.

Please, Sign-up to provide soup and bread. The sign-up sheet is located on bulletin board next to the coffee bar in the narthex.

Our Own "Wild" Couple ... by Susan Painter

Come and hear Bishop Dave and Gretchen Brauer-Rieke tell us about their 421 mile hike across the Oregon portion of the Pacific Crest Trail last summer. They will tell us how ordinary, middle aged people without previous long-distance hiking experience can do this. Learn about their preparations, their re-supply support systems and how they endured from the California border to the Columbia River.

Bishop Dave will preach at both services on Sunday March 22, 2015. We will have a potluck following the second service. Dave and Gretchen's presentation – complete with props – will begin about 1:30 that day.

First Friday Lunch Bunch ... by Raynette Rawles

Please call or e-mail office if you are able to attend.

From the Pastor . . .

Pastor
Ed Milliken

Dear Friends in Christ,

This year the season of Lent begins in February, so my thoughts have already turned in that direction. Truly, Lent is a hard season to sell. It has a bad reputation, and it certainly doesn't fit very well with what many modern people want from religion. In a time when entertainment and worship are used in the same sentence, it's difficult to understand what Lent has to offer.

The most common images associated with Lent are images that most people seek to avoid in their lives: darkness, mourning, sorrow, and distress. Lent begins with Ash Wednesday, the sign of the cross darkening our foreheads, and the somber solemn words ringing in our ears: "Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return." It ends with Good Friday as our Lord is nailed to the cross and becomes one with us in death. This is definitely not worship and entertainment!

But the woe of the cross is not the entirety of Lent. To focus on the cross as the only image of the season is to lose sight of the fullness of God's activity among us. The reality is that we Christians know how this story ends and, because of that, our somber observances contain the seeds of celebration. While the cross is an appropriate focus for our reflections, we always see it not simply as an instrument of torture and death, but as a vehicle of salvation.

So, the tone of Lent is also one of optimism. The first reading on the First Sunday in Lent sounds this note following the Genesis flood, God paints a rainbow in the sky, a sign of God's presence and promise, and life goes on with that assurance. Sunday after Sunday the same theme is presented. A promise is made to Abraham, even though he is apparently too old for it to be kept. Fiery serpents bring death to a disobedient people, but God sends healing – a bronze serpent raised on a pole and, ultimately, Christ on the cross. God rescues his people from their bondage in Egypt and gives them the framework of life in relationship with God and with one another.

Throughout the season, we are reminded that our God has established a covenant, a relationship of love, with us that no force, including sin and death can ever overcome. On the Fifth Sunday in Lent, Jesus speaks of a grain dying in the earth as an image of his death and resurrection. Christ is the seed fallen to earth, a planting that yields a harvest of life, health, and salvation. Christ is the one who accompanies us in our baptismal death and raises us to new life in him.

During the season of Lent our prayer will be that God will create in us clean hearts, that he will cleanse us and make us strong, that he will renew us by the Holy Spirit. It may not be entertaining, but our worship will enable us to walk through the wilderness of life in this world proclaiming God's reign of mercy and love as we share in Christ's obedience and in the ultimate victory of his resurrection.

Mindfulness

Some of you may remember the newsletter article I wrote last spring regarding the history of our narthex, in both its previous and its present incarnations. An undeniable salute remains to those who made the choices in the new design, which includes a lofty narthex space which continues to lift the spirits of those who enter. Also mentioned was the worshipful quietness imbued by our sanctuary, also a lofty space, which possesses a palpable sacredness.

Those precious connections between so many within our church community are consistent with our hopes for what a good design can achieve. It is a space for connections, a space for inspiration, a space of respite, study, prayer, and yes, the challenge and hard work of trying to understand the mystery. We are overjoyed to witness the love within these walls; it is obvious wherever in the space that people congregate.

But I mention this for a particular reason, and that is the one thing, the one piece of baggage which all of this ebullience has brought. Pre-worship conversations, often good ones, may not be ready to end at the time that worship convenes, and therein is the rub. If everyone can remember this, regardless of what is happening, and perhaps someone could even hold up their hand and say "timeout," or everyone could simply get up and enter the sanctuary when the music starts (NO LATER than 7:55 or 10:55), then all will be on the same page, and can agree to start up where they left off when they emerge from the sanctuary later.

This is important for all of us, both in respect for our purpose, as well as respect for those who have already quieted themselves for worship. When we think of what brought us here in the first place, our gratitude cannot be overstated.

Library Committee . . . by Jean Amundson

Treats, Sweets, and Library Fun!

We're not sure of the date for the library's "birthday," but the library committee will provide goodies after the services on February 15! It's in honor of Library Sunday, a delicious Atonement tradition. We'll play Library Bingo again, and there's a well-founded rumor that there will be another word game as well.

While you're enjoying the event, browse the stacks and check out an item or two—it's easy! Just sign your name and the date on the card in the back pocket, then file the card alphabetically according to the author's last name. Using the library is the best way to show your love for it!

WELCA Meeting ... by Jean Amundson

The WELCA group meets monthly for Bible study, fellowship, and treats. Our next meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 18th at 12:30pm in the narthex.

The topic this year is "Transforming Life and Faith". and we'll be studying people who have life-changing experiences. The people we'll meet will be from the Acts of the Apostles plus both the Old and New Testaments.

Refreshments will be served.

All are Welcome!

PFLAG Oregon Central Coast ... by Jeanne St. John

It's that time of year again--our annual Love is Love Valentine Party is coming up on Sunday, Feb. 8 from 2-4 pm at OCC in South Beach. We're hoping that each of the mid and south county Welcoming Churches will be able to provide 5 dozen tasty treats for the Decadent Desserts table.

We hope that you will be able to attend--and bring some members of your Welcoming Congregation to enjoy the event. It's a unique opportunity to share in a community event devoted to love--for everyone--gay and straight, young and old. There will be a table for making your own Valentines, a photographer for Sweetheart or family photos, live music, and a few spoken word readings.

Social Ministry Committee

Food for Food Share Program ... by Terri McCulley

for all the support we have received for this program. Anything is welcome and helpful, but this month we will focus on Canned Meats to try to "fill the barrel" again.

Red Cross Blood Drive ... by Terri McCully

Every 2 seconds someone in the US needs blood. It takes just a short amount of time to save up to three lives by giving blood. The need is always great and your help is needed and highly appreciated. Atonement is hosting a Red Cross blood drive February 6. So give blood if you can or help at the blood drive. If you can help by volunteering please call Terri at (541) 270-3424. If you can provide "treats" also let Terri know. Thank you.

Randy's Feed & Read Program ... by Sally Jennings

Please help our Social Ministry team provide nutritious meals to those most in need. We are looking for a lead cook or cooking team for each of our Stone Soup and Randy's Feed & Read events. You would only need to commit to planning and preparing a nutritious entree and heading up our kitchen crew one time.

Social Ministry team has experienced volunteers who can help with or do the shopping for ingredients and who will help prep and serve the meal the day of the event. We serve Stone Soup dinner at St. Stephens at 5:30 P.M. on the 4th Monday of each month...serving approximately 60 meals.

We also need lead cooks for Randy's Feed & Read. We provide a Family Night Out, including a 6:00 dinner, on the 4th Thursday of each month during the school year. We prepare enough food for 50 people, so our volunteers can sit down and eat and visit with the families.

Please contact Braulio Escobar, Sue Fowler or Sally Jennings to sign up to be the lead cook or cooking team for one of these meals. God's work, our hands.

Christmas Food Basket ... Marian Brown

On Monday, December 22nd the 8 families at Samaritan House each received a "Grab & Go" Christmas Food Basket from Atonement, thanks to food basket donations from members and a grant from Thrivent. What is a "Grab & Go" basket? The baskets were filled with fruit, veggies, cheese, crackers, sliced meat, juice and nuts. With the children on school break the food would provide healthy food for lunches and snacks. Currently there are several babies at Samaritan House so families with infants also received some diapers and baby wipes. THANK YOU ATONEMENT for your generosity!
